Free Movies at the NIM!
Summer 2014 features 20 kid favorites!

Columbus, Georgia – May 20, 2014: Families will find it easy to entertain the kids during the long summer vacation at the National Infantry Museum and Soldier Center. The FREE Family Film Fest starts May 27 and runs through July 30.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., digital screenings of 20 different family-friendly movies will be held in the IMAX Theatre. Admission is free to both children and adults; arrive early before the theater fills up! The concessions stand will be open for snacks and light lunches, including hot dogs, nachos, popcorn, muffins, candy, soda and ice cream.

Visit www.nationalinfantrymuseum.org/imax for the full schedule.

###

The National Infantry Museum and Soldier Center at Patriot Park, a 200-acre tract linking Columbus, Georgia, and the Maneuver Center of Excellence at Fort Benning, is the first world-class site to pay tribute to the U.S. Army Infantryman and those who fight alongside him. As the only interactive Army Museum in the United States, the museum showcases the contributions of the Infantry Soldier in every war fought by the U.S. by offering immersive participation and engaging visitors in the unique experiences of the Infantry Soldier. The complex also includes a parade field, memorial walk of honor, authentic World War II Company Street and 3-D IMAX® Theatre. For more information, visit www.nationalinfantrymuseum.org.
