The Amen Corner* is The Liberty Theatre's first show of the 2014-2015 season!

Columbus, GA September 22 , 2014: “To love the Lord is to love all His children—all of them, everyone!—and suffer with them and rejoice with them and never count the cost!” - Amen Corner

The Amen Corner by James Baldwin opens at The Liberty Theatre on October 17, 2014 at 8:00pm. Directed by Mr. E.L. Stiles, the play will run through October 26, 2014. The Friday and Saturday shows start at 8:00pm, and the Sunday matinees start at 4:00pm. The house opens one hour before show time.

After giving a fiery Sunday morning sermon, Margaret is confronted by the unexpected arrival of her long estranged husband, Luke, who collapses from illness shortly thereafter. Their son, David, along with several elders of the congregation, learn from Luke that, while Margaret had led everyone to believe that he had abandoned her with their son years ago, it was in fact Margaret who had left a dysfunctional Luke and pursued a religious life. This information precipitates confrontations between Margaret and her son, her congregation, and her estranged husband, regarding what they perceive as the hypocritical nature of her religious convictions, and the breakup of her family....
