ALBANY STATE UNIVERSITY GRADUATES AT HELM OF LIBERTY THEATRE'S ANNUAL RE-TELLING OF NATIVITY STORY

Go Tell It On the Mountain: A Cultural Celebration Opens December 3rd in Columbus, GA

Columbus, GA, November 29, 2016– The Liberty Theatre is pleased to have Ta'Varis Wilson, Ish Harris (Ishmael McKinstry), and Christopher De'Angelo (Christopher McGhee) at the helm of its annual re-telling of the Nativity Story. All three young men are graduates of Albany State University's Speech & Theatre program, and Wilson also holds a Master's Degree from Regent University in Acting. "Wilson, Harris, and De'Angelo are active in the Columbus, GA community and make amazing contributions to the city's art, music, and dance scene on a regular basis. They are true assets to our community, and we are honored to have them as a part of The Liberty Family," says Anderson – Liberty Theatre's Executive Director.

Produced by the Liberty Theatre and adapted by Ta'Varis Wilson and Ish Harris, Go Tell it on the Mountain: A Cultural Celebration is the retelling of the Nativity Story from the African American perspective. The production is loosely based off Langston Hughes' Black Nativity but also provides a snapshot of the life changing decisions Mary and Joseph had to make about faith, love, family, and purpose. The story takes viewers on a journey from the church, the cornerstone of the African American community, back to the manger in Bethlehem on that special night. Go Tell it on the Mountain: A Cultural Celebration is a musical production filled with song and dance, guaranteed to appeal to all generations.

Come celebrate the birth of Jesus in this rousing, thought-provoking, fun filled production! Tickets are $20.00 in advance, $25.00 day of show, and $15.00 each for groups of 10 or more. Tickets may be purchased at www.theishharris.com or via the Get Tickets tab on facebook.
