

NATIONAL ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION
OF SPELMAN COLLEGE
Columbus, Georgia Chapter

Contact: Angel Chaney
Phone: (706) 523-3395
Email: naasc.columbusga@gmail.com
Facebook: @naasc.columbusga
Web: <http://columbusnaasc.weebly.com/>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 23, 2019

LOCAL SPELMAN ALUMNAE HOST SHADES OF THE BLUES Scholarship fundraiser supporting local Spelman College students

COLUMBUS, GA -- The Columbus, Georgia Chapter of the National Alumnae Association of Spelman College hosts the Shades of the Blues scholarship fundraiser on Saturday, September 21st, 2019 from 4:00-8:00pm at PowerHouse, located downtown Columbus at 1205 Front Avenue, Columbus, Georgia 31901.

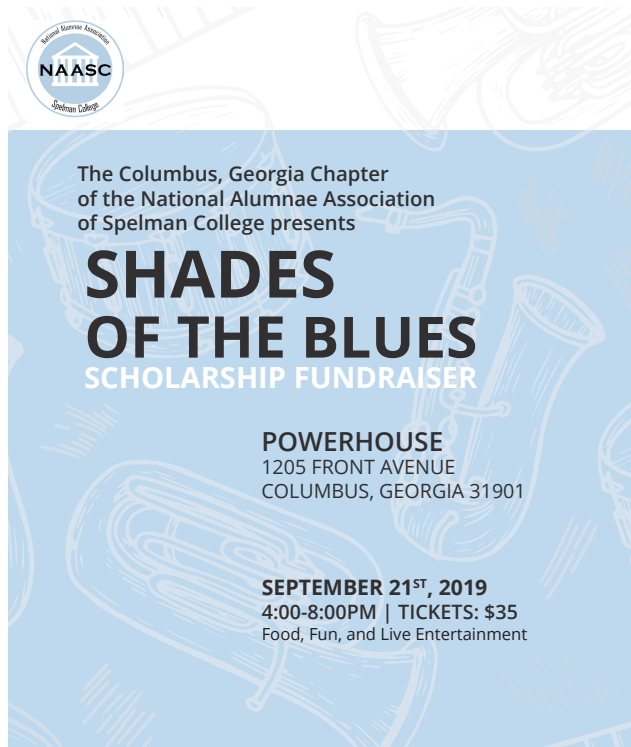

This indoor – outdoor musical experience will feature live blues entertainment, as well as other genres of music. Guests will enjoy delicious barbeque and are encouraged to wear any shade of blue for the event.

The Columbus Chapter of the NAASC is a 501(C)3 organization formed primarily to support Spelman College by providing scholarships to deserving students. Chapter president, Angel Chaney, states, “We are excited to bring the Spelman spirit to the Tri-City area and more excited to watch it grow each year.”

Notable Spelman College alumnae include Pulitzer Prize winning author, Alice Walker; children’s rights advocate, Marion Wright Edelman; television personality, Shaun Robinson; actors Esther Rolle and Keshia Knight Pulliam; and Civil Rights activist and daughter of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Bernice King.

Opportunities to sponsor scholarships for the event are available. For more information, please email LaNora Emziah at naasc.columbusga@gmail.com.

For updated information about this event, please visit the Columbus, Georgia NAASC website at <http://columbusnaasc.weebly.com/events.html> or Facebook @naasc.columbusga.

FOR TICKETS, CONTACT 706-341-9343 OR 706-523-3395
@naasc.columbusga | email: naasc.columbusga@gmail.com

###