

CAMELLIA SHOW!!! OPEN TO PUBLIC FREE OF CHARGE

WHAT: Chattahoochee Valley Camellia Society's 4th Annual Camellia Show

WHEN: Saturday, February 15 & Sunday, February 16, 2014 - 1-5pm

WHERE: The Columbus Museum, 1251 Wynnton Road, Columbus, GA

The Chattahoochee Valley Camellia Society would like to cordially invite you to its 2014 Camellia Show Saturday, February 15, 2014 and Sunday, February 16, 2014 from 1-5pm at the Columbus Museum, 1251 Wynnton Road, in Columbus, Georgia.

The show, sanctioned by the American Camellia Society, will have 20 + judges, led by well-known Atlanta Camellia enthusiast, John Newsome. There will be many categories for growers of all levels, including novice, and many cash awards.

The Camellia Show is open to the public free of charge and spectators as well as competitors are welcome. You do not need to be a Camellia Society member to enter blooms or to attend. In addition to viewing the breathtaking blooms entered in the Show, you may take advantage of the many exciting exhibitions on view at the Columbus Museum and take a tour of the lovely Bradley Olmsted Garden. The 2013 Show brought 1,000 patrons and more than 850 gorgeous blooms.

According to Sam Wellborn, President of the CVCS, all blooms may be brought to the Columbus Museum between 6:30 -10am on Saturday, February 15, 2014.

Those entering the Show for the first time should arrive at the Columbus Museum loading dock no later than 8:30am to ensure that you have plenty of time to enter your blooms before judging begins. Camellia Society members will be available to help.
