Sherlock's Mystery Dinner Theatre and opens seventh season in Columbus
"Sock Hop Homicide!"

COLUMBUS, GEORGIA, February 4, 2014 - Sherlock's Mystery Dinner Theatre® opens its seventh season in Columbus with a new play - "Sock Hop Homicide," which opens on Friday, February 14, 2014, and performs every Friday and Saturday night until Saturday, March 22, 2014, at 7:00 p.m. at the Downtown Historic Columbus Marriott Hotel. Reservations are required and are $48.50 per person plus tax and can be purchased online at www.SherlocksColumbus.com or by calling 706-604-5634. Reservations include the show, a 3-course dinner, water, tea & coffee. A cash bar is provided and the show and dinner last approximately 2 hours and 15 minutes. Dress is business casual and a group discount is given to 10 or more.

THE PLAY - "Sock Hop Homicide!"

Take a trip back to 1957 to Rydell High School's annual dance competition, which has been selected by TV's "National Bandstand" to be broadcast all over the country! And super "slickster" Mr. Johnny Fontaine himself is coming to host the show! But Johnny has a dark secret that might keep him from making it to the final credits. Come join Sherlock's as we kick off our 7th season of hilarious productions at the Uptown Historic Marriott Hotel. Our interactive theatre experience has thrilled over 8,000 patrons and reservations always go fast, so buy yours now

THE COMPANY:

SHERLOCK'S MYSTERY DINNER THEATRE® is a fully interactive murder mystery dinner theatre. Audience members arrive around 6:45 PM to check in with the House Manager outside the Empire Mills Room or the Chattahoochee Room in the Marriott Lobby and are soon greeted by actors in costumes. The actors circulate around the guests and pass out audience participation "speaking parts" to those who wish to get into the action. At 7:00 PM, everyone will take their seats and Act One will begin. At this point, no late seating is allowed until Act One is completed. Meal courses and beverage service will resume in between the four Acts. The entire evening lasts approximately 2 1/2 hours and due to some minor adult humor the event receives a PG-13 rating.

Sherlock's Mystery Dinner Theatre® is a 501(c)(3) non-profit theatre serving the Chattahoochee Valley area since 2008.
